“FOOTPRINTS”

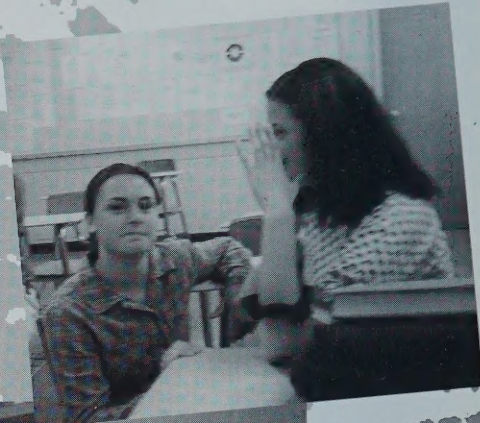

One night a man had a dream. he dreamed he was walking along the beach with his dearest friend. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, the other to his friend.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned his friend about it.. “you said that once we decided to stick together, you’d walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don’t understand why when I needed you most you would leave me.”

His friend replied, “My dear, dear friend, I love you and would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you.”

CHANGES

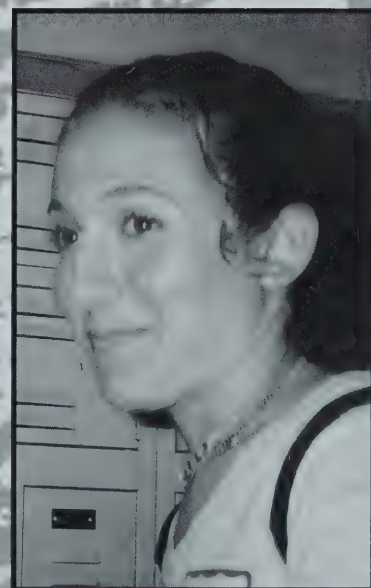

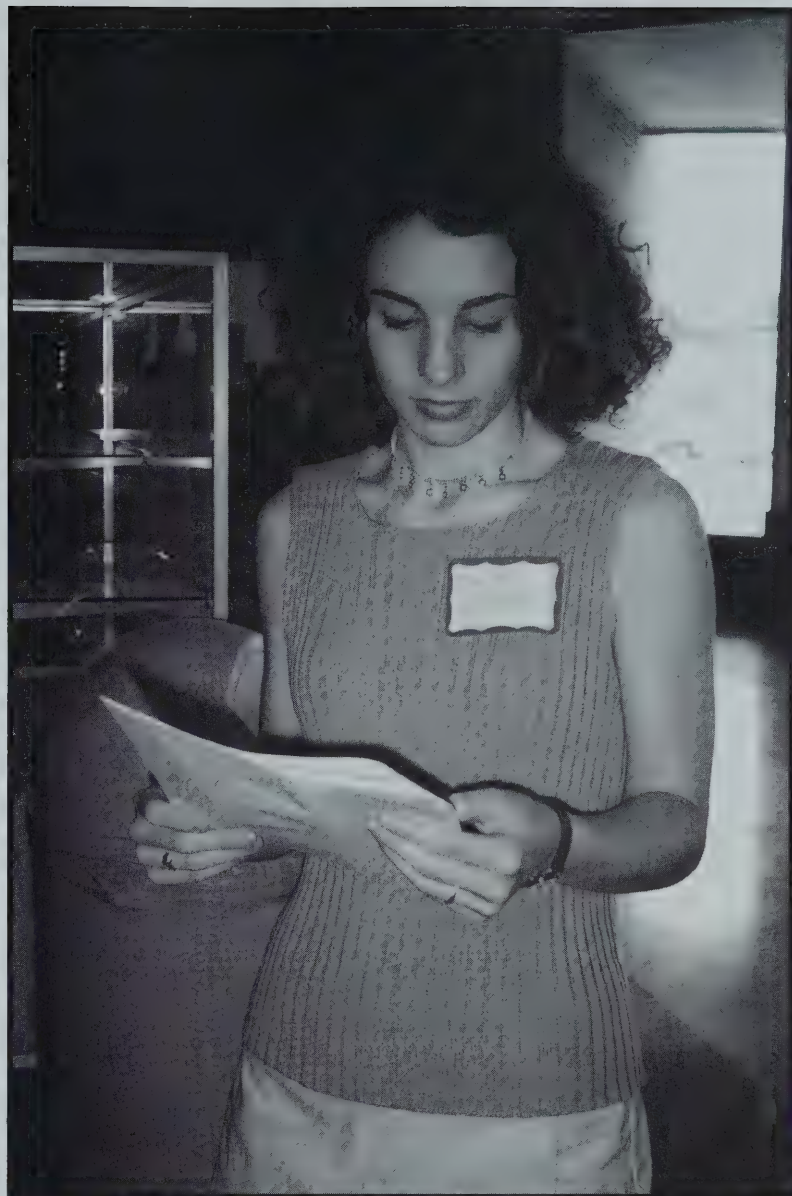

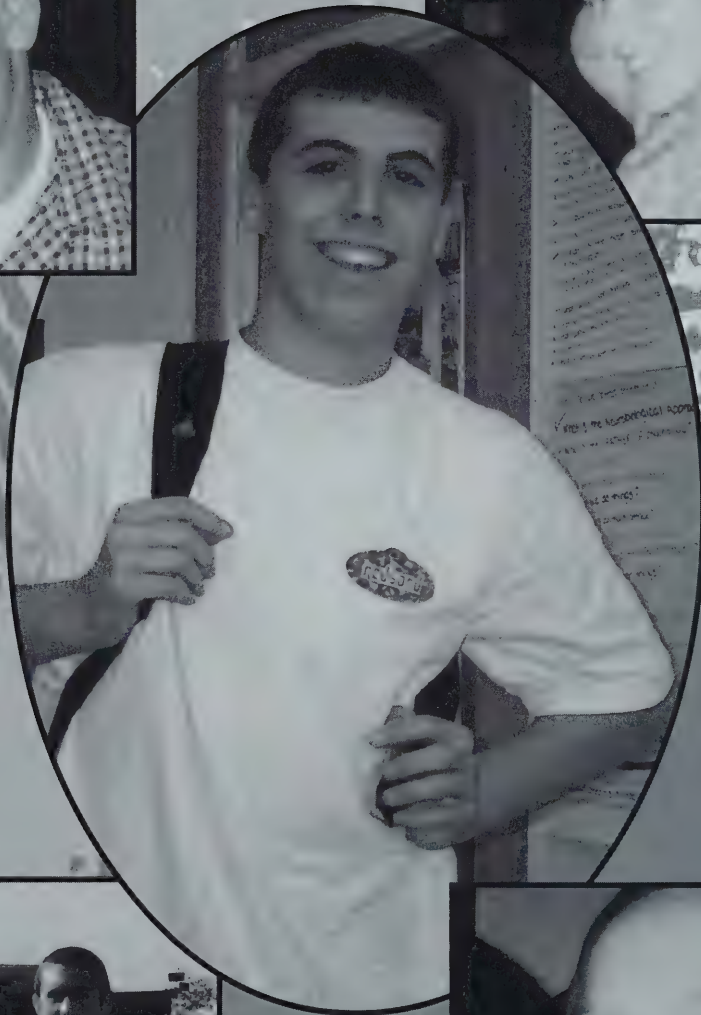

The metamorphosis that most seniors have made in the past four years, is either wonderful, expected or a miracle. What have you changed into? A butterfly or a moth?

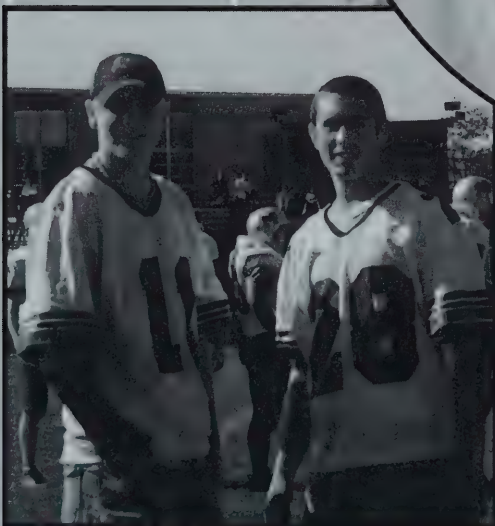

A relatively boring day for the seniors was a taste of what the freshmen would be doing this September. Even though they didn't have a day to themselves, they survived the walls of MHS. With wide eyes they tried to remember all of the things the upper classmen told them. Freshmen quoted saying "I'll be fine" were quite surprised to learn that making it through the halls was a lot different with about six hundred more kids. Getting to class wouldn't be an easy task to come by.

Cheerleaders

It's been a long, hard season, but probably one of our best. Many high school squads have been cheering since they were little kids-but not us ... we came from all different levels of experience and knowledge. It's not a sport they teach you how to play in gym class, which is why our sport is unique. We've had a lot of work and many routines to remember. As coach would say, "This is not a no-brainer sport." From where we've come from, where we are now, and where we're going... as a team-be proud, hold you heads high and be sure to recognize you accomplishments.

Indoor Track

The girls track team, coached by Anne McGrail, established a name for themselves this past season. Finishing with an outstanding record of five wins, one loss and two ties, they landed in third place in the Hockomock League. New school records were set in the shot put, 1000 m, 1 mile, 2 mile and the 4 by 800 relay. Behind the leadership of seniors, Jen Fitzgibbon, Alicia Mullin, Jen Scott, Marissa Conti, Leigh Gannon, Gina Giordano, Shannon Roberts and Trisha Suess, the team went above and beyond everyone's expectations.

Remembering Dianna

*The smiles you gave will never fade,
The jokes you played day after day.
The memories that never disappear
The fun we had until the sun rose.
Your life hasn't really ended
the lies that bend the hope that has begun, the love that never ended.
Now you will never be forgotten.
Death took us apart but never the memories you gave.*

*You'll always be my best friend
were the very last words you said.
I don't understand why, what were you thinking. Now all that is left are our memories.
Memories that I will always treasure.
We were suppose to have the time of our lives this summer, but you left me all alone.
This nightmare has grown worse with each passing day.*

*Two years later, sitting on the stage, I wait to receive my diploma. You should be receiving yours, except for a deadly crash. Ironically, not too far down the road.
This event has changed
everyone's lives. So much has happened.
You weren't there. So many times I picked up the phone, only to realize, that you would not be on the other end.*

*One less name will be called today,
but you will never be forgotten..*

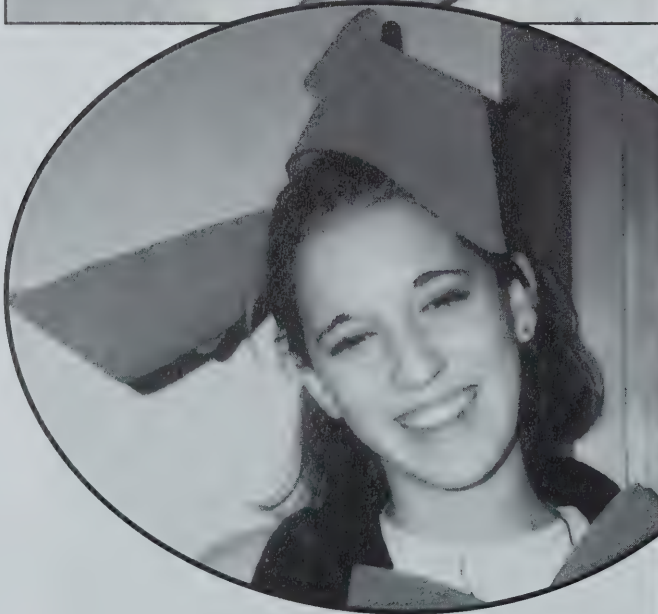

My Staff

Letter from the Editor

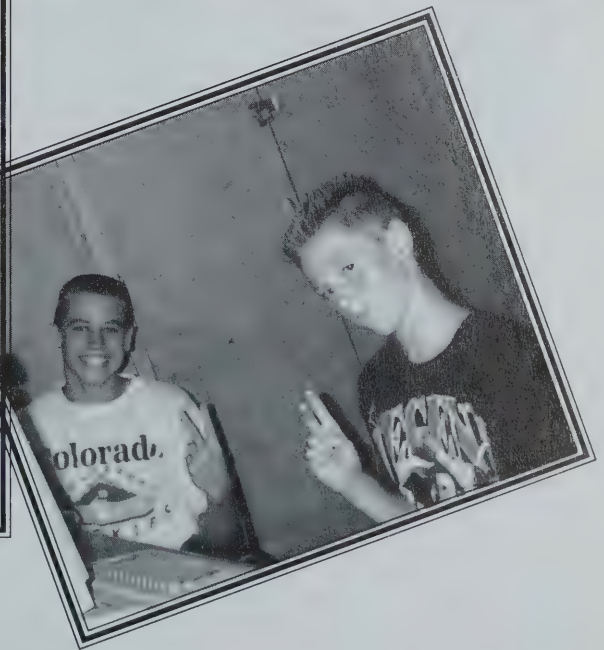

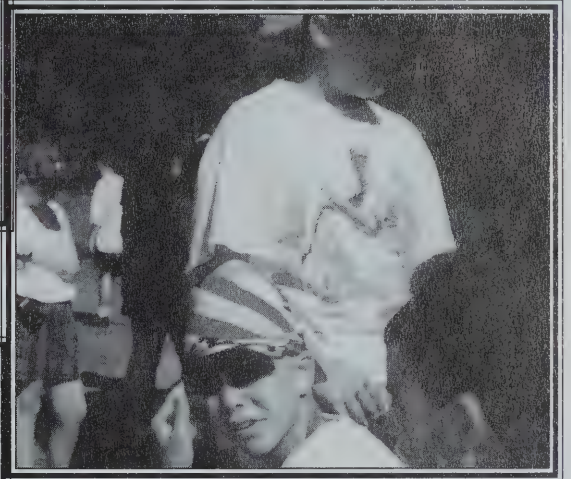

At this time, I would like to thank, Mrs. Picciandra and Ms. Parrillo, the Yearbook advisors, for all their help and patience. Mr. Rosa, for allowing the yearbook to be produced, and the janitors for always opening the doors for us at all hours. Also, I would especially like to thank my minimum staff. It's not easy putting together, a book with only six or seven people. The deadlines came to fast and the pages were too few. We often forgot disks and made fools of ourselves running around the school. We had some fun times and I want you to remember them, so you can apply them next year. Learn from my mistakes and learn from my accomplishments. To everyone that gave us pictures, we thank you, and hope that you will continue to help next year. Alli - I leave you two new and growing programs, that I trust will do nothing but excel under your care. So, when you're my assistant AD, we'll be all set. As to the graduating class of 99, all of your accomplishments have exceeded everyone's expectations and I hope that you will be as proud, as I am to show new school mates this book. Good luck in the coming years and always keep this close by, never forget your years here. This is my final gift to you.

JoeAnne,

Your the bones of our bones
The flesh of our flesh
But it's your spirit and style that we've always loved best.

The Universe is big,
Millions of lights sparkling on midnight glue
But our eyes have always been focused on you.

You're our reason for living,
You're our hope for the world,
Now a grown up young woman
Though once our baby girl.

Some of your young life hasn't been easy,
Sometimes you've stood one against all,
But the times we're proudest,
Are when your rise up from falls.

So go out and show the world,
Don't let the world show you.
In all the world you are what's right, what's best, the deepest shade of blue,
No matter how steep the path is you climb as if you flew.

When we look at you and all of your accomplishments,
We see all the best parts of us,
But we especially love how you never give up.

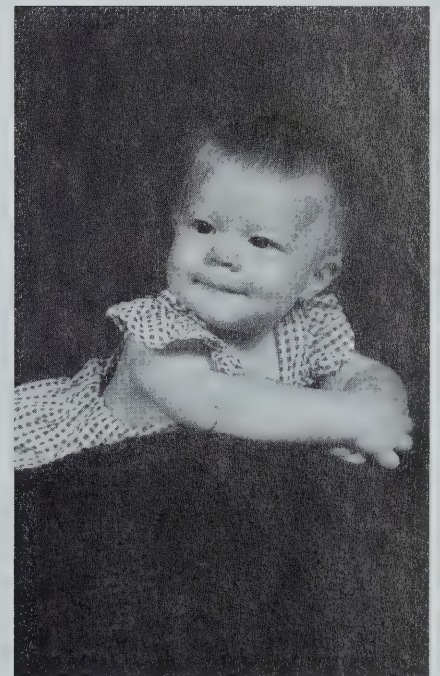

Some people never make a mark on life,
Some people never make a start,
If you never did either of those things,
You'd be the star shining in our hearts.

But we can hear your destiny calling you,
The harp is already strung,
We have to let you play it now,
Until the melody is done.

We're glad we got to help string the harp,
We live to hear you play it,
The notes ring so true,
JoeAnne, do you hear it? The song is you!

Love,

Mom and Dad

Dorothy-

We still remember the day you started kindergarten. You have always worked hard and have become a terrific student and a wonderful young lady. We are very proud of you!

Love,

*Mom, Dad,
Kristin and Kate*

Enjoy nature. . . Relax. . . and have a good time. . .

Families have been coming to eastern Massachusetts for generations to visit Boston, Plymouth, the nearby area, enjoy the scenery, and to relive some of the most important times in American history. To help make your visit pleasant, inexpensive and enjoyable, we welcome you to Canoe River Campgrounds.

In the heart of historic New England, you'll enjoy staying at our clean, comfortable campground with all of the modern facilities you expect. Spend a pensive moment by one of our ponds. Relax in the shade of your wooded campsite, or splash around in one of our two heated pools. The kids will have fun at the arcade and the snack bar, or may decide to join in on a game of basketball. Mom, we think there are more outlets here than anywhere in America. The whole family will enjoy day trips to Boston, Plymouth and all of the exciting attractions nearby, or might like to take a deep sea or whale watching excursion!

Canoe River Campgrounds is a great place to spend your vacation!

Abby,

Many years have passed
And you're fairly well grown,
All anxious and happy
To go out on your own.
May the light that shines
On your future today,
Continue to grow
And brighten your way.
Remember we love you
And will miss you while you roam
But will be here waiting
When you decide to visit home.

Love,
Mom, Dad & Scott
